

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HAPPENINGS

Promoting and celebrating the businesses and organizations of the Souhegan Valley.

Sold Out Auction Benefits Military Families in Souhegan Valley Communities

There was no shortage of patriotism and support for our troops at the Harley Sanford Post VFW Hall in Milford, NH for the recent Veterans Count Auction. The event provided the perfect opportunity for nearly 220 local business leaders and concerned individuals to thank local veterans and their families. The auction, a joint effort by Easter Seals NH and the Souhegan Valley Chamber of Commerce, raised nearly $36,000. Several Chamber businesses are continuing to collect direct donations for Veterans Count to be added to that figure to benefit Souhegan Valley military families. The audience got into the spirited bidding thanks to the auctioneering style – and cajoling of Steve Desmarais as he prodded friends and neighbors into raising the ante on some choice selections. A two-week stay in Apricale, Italy brought a premium as did the four Red Sox tickets with limo ride. Lots of great bargains, lots of great opportunities to have fun. There was truly something for everyone in the items donated for the Auction.

Easter Seals NH's collaborative initiative, Veterans Count, finds solutions to health and social service gaps that exist for veterans and their families throughout New Hampshire.

“Easter Seals has a vision of developing and creating an integrated system that links National Guard and Reserve personnel with the Department of Health and Human Services and other key community service agencies to find solutions to meet their unmet care needs before they become critical,” said Easter Seals COO Christine McMahon. “We are thankful to the Chamber for partnering with us on this successful effort. Their support allows us to continue doing this very important work.”

A special thank you to event sponsors and supporters Cirtronics Corporation, Souhegan Wood Products, Kimball Physics, Frederick's Pastries, Elisha's Restaurant, Edward Jones Investments, Edward Klopfer, D.D.S, Illuminart, Foodee's, Granite State Credit

Message From May's Desk:

Are you going to be left out? Did you get the email? Did you see the announcement on the website and did you think, "Oh, I should remember to fill that out when I have more time." Or you saw it in the newspaper. Well, we missed you on April 19 at the Veterans Count Auction and Dinner. A more than two hundred of your neighbors joined us for a wonderful evening of great food – Frederick's Pastries, Elisha's Restaurant, Foodee's – great fun – Auctioneer Extraordinaire, Steve Desmarais – and feeling good about the reason for being there – the Veterans Count program through Easter Seals. We had a packed house for bidding on some fantastic offers from two weeks in Italy to Red Sox tickets to deep sea fishing to local restaurant gift certificates. What an evening! After all is tallied up, we will have over thirty thousand to share. We owe all the donors, sponsors, supporters for the meal, decorations and the committee members an enormous thank you for all the help. We could not have done this without each contribution.

Chamber of Commerce, is a great deal older. Our archives only go back so far, memories, too. But here in the office there is evidence of the Chamber going back to the sixties under the umbrella of the Southern New Hampshire Association of Commerce and Industry. Nashua, Salem and Milford/Amherst Chambers were all under their direction and support. Gradually as the area grew and the needs of the three Chambers changed as a result, it became evident that the Milford/Amherst Chamber would provide better service to its members as an independent association of businesses and civic organizations. Hence the date of 1988 as the "birth" of the Chamber. Sue Blothenberg of PSNH was the last Chairman under the former structure; Ken Fordham was the architect of the separation and the first Milford/Amherst Chamber Chairman of the Board of Directors. Both continue to be strong advocates for the Chamber which changed its' name to Souhegan Valley just ten years ago to better reflect the geographic area served.

So are you going to miss another special night with Chamber members and guests? The Annual Dinner is always a very important night for recognizing the outstanding people, businesses and students of the Souhegan Valley. This year is just a wee bit more special – if that is grammatically correct, because it is the Twentieth Anniversary of the Chamber!

Souhegan Valley Chamber of Commerce, formerly known as, Milford/Amherst

Please, don't miss this chance to celebrate with all the people who represent the businesses and organizations that have been part of the success and contributed to the quality of life in the communities of the Souhegan Valley. Come meet with members and their guests to celebrate, congratulate, appreciate the leaders, volunteers, businesses and the future business leaders of the Souhegan Valley. Call the office or go to www.souhegan.net for the details.

opportunity for printable coupons that are "On Display Every Day." When it comes to circulation, the Town Planner is in good company. In fact, Town Planner's circulation competes favorably with the largest most well-known publications available today. At 7th on the list, you can rest assured that the Town Planner is kept -- and used -- by millions of families in communities across the country. And they don't just keep the Town Planner for a week or a month... They keep the Town Planner all year, reinforcing the sponsor's messages in homes throughout your area. Most people that receive the calendar realize that it is not just another piece of advertising. They know that the businesses that sponsor the Calendar are not just out to make sales, but also show appreciation for people living within their community. It is our feeling after meeting and getting to know other Publishers and the Pauler Communication Team, that the Town Planner is a solid and focused, growth-minded organization. The earning potential is only limited to the Publishers ability to seek out merchants and business professionals who are willing to invest in their image and give something back to the community.

each category to represent the many who contribute to the fabric of our area is a difficult one, it is indeed a pleasure for the Chamber committee doing it. Reading the nominating forms, it is clear why this is such a special region and why it has such draw for people moving to southern New Hampshire. The people and the business community are the foundation for the services, the schools and the civic organizations that complete the landscape of the Souhegan Valley.

Join us June 5 in thanking all the recipients of the several awards past and new for their commitment to doing their best to add to the richness of our Souhegan Valley life.

Spring is in the Air at RSEC

The RSEC Academy Class of 2009 sells spring plants to pay for senior class trip.

Does your deck or garden need a little color? The RSEC Academy class of 2009, an affiliate school of Regional Services and Education Center, Inc. (RSEC) will be hosting a plant sale on May 3-4, 2008 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. and May 10th from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Sunrise Children's Center parking lot behind the RSEC Main Office located at 94 Route 101A, Amherst, NH. Proceeds from the fundraiser will be used to underwrite costs for the senior class trip. The Proven Winner® hanging planters are being donated by Pleasant View Gardens in Loudon, New Hampshire.

“The students are very excited about their latest project,” said Alison Batey, Teacher at The RSEC Academy. “By hosting this plant sale, they’re not only gaining retail experience in managing money, but also interpersonal skills in working with customers and learning how teamwork can help them to achieve goals that an individual might not be able to do alone. The final reward will be skills they’ll have as they continue on in life and a terrific senior class trip that they’ll always remember.”

Plants available during the sale will be single color hangers of Proven Winners Supertunias®, Superbells®, and a variety of mixed Proven Winner hangers selling for $28 each. There will also be 4.5” pots of similar varieties for those individuals who wish to mix-and-match their own containers or garden landscapes.

Fifth Anniversary Exhibit Marks the Collapse of Old Man of the Mountain

May 3rd, 2008 marks the fifth anniversary of the loss of the Old Man of the Mountain. For many, the image of the Old Man, on the side of Profile Mountain in Franconia Notch, was a comforting icon for which to seek when traveling through the White Mountains of New Hampshire. Indeed, many have said that the loss of this beloved natural formation was like losing a member of the family.

In commemoration, Just Read Books, at 172 South St. in Milford, NH, has mounted a special exhibit of Old Man images and memorabilia. The exhibit represents 45 years of dedicated collecting by Richard Mori, owner of Just Read Books. On display are original art, images on license plates, pottery, porcelain, wood products, coins, medallions, tokens, ribbons, buttons and advertising

Mori says, “This is probably one of the largest collections in the state on the specific image of the Old Man and I am pleased to share my collections with others. I last displayed the collections right after the Old Man collapsed and have since added many items not displayed previously”.

Just Read Books (formerly Mori Books) is open daily, from 10am to 5pm, for directions call 732-0258 or visit moribooks.com. The exhibit is on display through the end of June.

Barbour Celebrates 100 Years of Catalogs

Local Barbour office joins global celebration of company milestone

April 10th, senior executives and employees at Milford based Barbour, Inc. joined in a worldwide celebration of the 100th anniversary of the first ever Barbour catalog, which marked the expansion of the British outfitter from a local South Shields success to a truly global company.

“We are honored to be a part of a worldwide celebration to commemorate the 100 year anniversary of John Barbour’s first catalog in 1908,” said Tom Hooven, General Manager of Barbour North America.

The U.S. offices joined Barbour subsidiaries worldwide at 4:00 p.m. local time to recognize the company milestone in authentic British fashion with tea and cake. The cake, compliments of Jake’s Old Fashioned Ice Cream & Sweet Shop in Milford, was iced looking like the 1908 catalogue cover.

After 14 years of success in the marketplace of South Shields, U.K., Barbour created its first mail-order catalogue in 1908 making its oilskin clothing available across Great Britain and as far away as Chile, South Africa and Hong Kong. By 1917, the mail order catalog was hugely successful and accounted for almost 75% of business. Every year since 1908, Barbour has continued to produce catalogs to promote and sell its range of clothing, which today includes over three hundred styles of outerwear and lifestyle apparel for people who live in or are inspired by the country.

Consumers are invited to call Barbour, Inc., the U.S. subsidiary in Milford, NH, at 800-338-3474, for a catalog or a name of a local retailer, or visit the Barbour Web site at www.barbour.com.

"Forever Locked"

The NH Locked Moose Antler Project, Inc. announces that their exhibit "Forever Locked" will be on display at the First Colebrook Bank, 69 Route 101A, Amherst, NH, on Saturday May 10, 2008 from 10:00am – 2:00pm.

"Forever Locked" is a life-size, museum-quality taxidermy exhibit depicting a rare, natural event that occurred near an early settlement known as Fowlertown, located in Gile State Forest, Springfield, NH. It portrays two bull moose that permanently locked antlers while dueling, causing their deaths.

with Nature's Reflection Taxidermy, Gray, Maine. "Forever Locked" is an educational wildlife exhibit that accurately captures a naturally occurring wildlife phenomenon. It works in cooperation with the NH Conservation Officers Relief Association and supports the mission of the NH Fish and Game Department which reads: "As guardian of the state's fish, wildlife, and marine resources, the NH Fish and Game Department works in partnership with the public to; Conserve, manage and protect these resources and their habitats; Inform and educate the public about these resources; and provide the public with opportunities to use and appreciate these resources"

The exhibit is the property of the N.H. Locked Moose Antler Project, Inc. (non-profit) and was created in partnership
